

May Exhibit

This is a two person show with realist painter, Linda Anderson and wood artist, Dick Costa. Linda has always loved all things Western, especially horses, and her lack of formal training did not stop her from learning to draw them. Her watercolors and acrylics have won many awards for her realist style work. Linda has won the nationally juried Glenwood Springs fine art festival – a highlight of her career. Linda is inspired by the area's western heritage, vast openness and beautiful sunrises and sunsets.

Dick Costa's love of woodworking began when he was a young man. He soon learned to carve and a lifelong respect of woods and woodworking was born. He uses techniques in his work that he has learned from people all over the world. Dick is turning out some beautiful pieces of wood in the form of pens, bowls, vases and sculptures which are more creative and challenging.

The show will run from May 3-27 with an artist reception on Sunday, May 15 from 1-3 pm.

Bob Rockwell, a local Deming author, will also be on hand to promote his new book "Riding With Villa".

Sculpture Class is scheduled for May 20 and 21. From 9 am to 4 pm both days. Award-winning, Joanie Wolter, is class instructor.

The class is full but we are taking names in case of cancellations.
