JANUARY 2020

The Deming Art Center is pleased to present, "Art from the Great Southwest" for the January 2020 exhibit. Deming resident, Ron Wolfe, and Will Keener from Las Cruces will present an amalgam of fine art photographic techniques and styles based on a decade of shooting in the Southwest. Ron and Will have collaborated on a number of projects, including various publications and exhibits in the region. Their goal is to demonstrate the artistic aspects of photography with subjects familiar to the audience. Keener has some composite photos, using different images layered and blended into a final product. The artists reception is on Sunday, January 5 from 1-3 pm.

There will be a drawing for these two photos at the reception.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

➡ An amateur is an artist who supports himself with outside jobs which enable him to paint. A professional is someone whose wife works to enable him to paint. Ben Shahn

➡ He had the great traditional stimulant to the industry of an artist - laziness and debt. John Mortimer

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE DEMING ARTS COUNCIL

Thank you to every one of our members of the Deming Arts Council for your support for the past year. During the year we had the Western exhibit in January having many of the members of the Deming area participated in all the activities. The Arts Council continues to evolve every year with new educational programs as well as continuing the "Kids Art Class" begun by Nancy Costa. I would like to say a special thank you to all our volunteers, who make all our activities successful. We look forward to 2020 being a great year for our membership, with our continuing the "Membership Show" for you all to participate in during the month of September. Last year we had 39 artists of all ages display their art. Everyone should be proud of our very talented members. Financially, the Deming Arts Council is stable because many persons place items in the Little Gallery, donate items and money to us and support our fundraising activities. We are always looking for volunteers and new members for our Board.

We hope you have a wonderful Holiday Season!
